26th January 2025

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

SYMPATHY

We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of BRIAN MCKENDRY who has died recently. May he rest in peace.

Funeral Mass and burial in Granaghan on Sunday 26th January at 10.30am

Prayer for Vocations: As we celebrate this Sunday of The Word of God we pray for those already called or being called to serve as priests of the Diocese of Derry that, filled with the Spirit of the Lord, they will work to bring the "good news" of God's love and mercy to God's people.

GRANAGHAN & DISTRICT WOMEN'S GROUP:

Our new round of activities for 2025 continues this incoming week with Shane Martin from Moodwatchers via Zoom, Morning Yoga, Evening Yoga, Morning Mat-based Pilates and Morning Chair-based Pilates and also Demo cookery. Whereas all our activities are over-subscribed, we do have a Waiting List for them all. Gentle reminder that all our activities are open to men as well as women. Our secretary, Ann McNicholl available for all enquiries: 07714757643.

Dromantine Workshop

The following workshop will be offered by Father Hugh Lagan SMA in 2025. Father Lagan is a priest with the Society of African Missions and a chartered clinical psychologist. He has led retreats and workshops internationally on psychological and spiritual well-being, positive change, trauma and resilience.

Saturday, 08 February 2025 Living Your Strengths: Discover your unique character strengths and reach your true potential. Character strengths are positive human traits that cultivate the best of who we can become. This workshop will identify your unique character strengths and talents, teach you how to engage them optimally and help you shift into new possibilities in your work, relationships, health and virtually every dimension in your life. Discover how your character strengths are your best-kept secret for building resilience, boosting your well-being and appreciating what's best in you. 9.30am - 4.30pm (registration 9am) £43 / €50
